MONDAY, Auguſt 27th, 1744. [Numb. 544]

AMERICA.

Newport, Rhode Iſland, March 23.

ON Saturday laſt arrived our Privateer Prince Frederick, Capt. J. Dennis, and Tueſday his Conſort, Capt. W. Allen. We hear, that ſince they took 15,000 Dollars out of a French Snow, they have run aſhore a Spaniſh Privateer and another Veſſel near St. Jago. After that they cruiz'd 6 Weeks in the Bay of Mexico without ſeeing a Sail, but in their Return took a Schooner bound from Campeachy to the Havanna, laden with Salt and dry Goods, and 1300 Dollars. She had 25 Men, and was commanded by the Lieutenant of the Admiral's Ship at the Havanna.

We have alſo the following Account of ſome other of our Privateers, viz. Capt. Lamprier has taken another Prize of conſiderable Value; that Capt. James Allen has taken a ſmall Sloop laden with Oyl, and ſent her into Providence; and that Capt. Griffiths had driven aſhore on Cuba and deſtroyed a Spaniſh Privateer of eight Carriage and eight Swivel Guns, and 55 Men, and brought away the Guns. That Capt. Wimbis had unfortunately loſt his Veſſel on Cuba; and that Capt M Clark, in the Hunter, had met with ſuch bad Weather ſoon after he ſail'd, that his ſide was beat in, and 16 Men waſh'd overboard and loſt, and the Veſſel was got into Bermuda to repair.

We alſo hear, that Capt. Maine, in his Station at the Weſt End of Cuba, had the good Fortune to take a French Veſſel with 36,000 Dollars of Spaniſh Property on board, for which the Captain gave a Receipt, and paid the Freight.

King's Town in Jamaica, March 3. We are inform'd, that Capt. Coats, in his Majeſty's Ship the York, has taken a Snow of Force, lately built at the River Sina, and that he lay before Porto Bello and demanded the Sloop Tryton, Capt. Chriſtie, and her Cargo, which was taken or detained there; if they did not comply, they were told, he was reſolved to cannonade the Town, but they promiſed in a limitted Time to ſend 25,000 Pieces of Eight to pay for her and Cargo.

Williamsburgh, April 3. On Sunday laſt arrived in Pianketank River, the Ship Berwick, Capt. Harwood, from London. He was chas'd and taken by a Spaniſh Privateer, of 20 Guns, and 200 Men, but the Wind very hard, and the Sea being very rough, they could not then board him, but kept him under their Stern 'till Night came on, when, by Reaſon of the Darkneſs, &c. Captain Harwood took his Opportunity, and made his Eſcape. She has Goods on board her, to the Value of 20,000 l.

New York, April 23. From Jamaica we hear, that Capt. Steed in his Paſſage from Curacoa to this Place, was taken by a Spaniſh Privateer, who took out her Money, Paſſengers, and ſome of his Hands, and put 7 Spaniards on board her; but the Men finding an Opportunity, tho' no more than 4, roſe and retook the Sloop, and carried her into Jamaica.

Newport, April 20. On Wedneſday laſt put in here from Jamaica his Majeſty's Ship the Experiment, and this Morning ſhe ſail'd for Piſcataqua, to convoy the Maſt-ſhips. As this Ship left Jamaica, ſhe met the Ripon going in with a large rich Ship belonging to the King of Spain, having on board 300 Tons of Quick ſilver, and three Spaniſh Governors, with their Equipage, going to the Indies.

Philadelphia, May 10. On Friday laſt our Privateers, the Wilmington, and the George return'd from a Cruize. 'Tis ſaid the Wilmington goes incomparably well, having outſail'd the Orford Man of War (commonly called the flying Orford) ſaid to be the beſt going Ship in the Navy.

May 16. Laſt Week Alexander Ketter, late Commander of the Ship William and Mary, belonging to this Place, arrived here, by whom we have the following Account, viz. That on the 26th of March paſt, on his Paſſage from Barbados to Carolina, he met with a Spaniſh Privateer who ordered him to bring to, but he refuſed, making all the Sail he poſſibly could, and kept clear of her 'till next Morning at 11 o'Clock, when he was obliged to ſtrike, there being but little Wind. The Privateer was called the Patack, formerly the Humming-Bird of New York, mounting 4 Carriage and 8 Swivel Guns, having then 70 Men on board. Capt. Ketter informs us, that ſhe had taken, about a Week before ſhe took him, a Sloop bound from Anguilla to New York, Benjamin Morgan Maſter: And that April 2d ſhe took a large Sloop, of 20 Swivel Guns and 12 Men, of and from Boſton, bound to Jamaica, John Graham Maſter. The next Day ſhe took two Sloops, one belonging to Boſton, Daniel Freeman Maſter, the other belonging to Connecticut, one Smith Maſter, both laden with Proviſions from North Carolina, being then about 2 Leagues to the Eaſtward of Antigua. April 4th ſhe took a New York Schooner under Mount-ſervant, Robert Leonard Maſter; the next Day took a ſmall Sloop at Anchor off Santa Cruz, one of the Virgin-Iſlands, belonging to the Dutch, the Captain and all Hands ſwam aſhore. This Sloop, being loaded with nothing but Wood, was given to the Priſoners, 25 in Number, to come away in, who went with her down to St. Thomas's, and delivered her to the Owners there.

Newport, May 4. On Tueſday Captain James Allen, in the Privateer Revenge, returned from his Cruize, and the next Day arrived his Prize, a large Sloop with 8 Carriage and 22 Swivel Guns, and 40 Men, which he took a few Hours after ſhe came out of the Havanna. She and her Conſort fought under Dutch Colours, and kill'd the Gunner of the Privateer, but hurt no other Man. We hear ſhe has 15,000 mill'd Dollars and about the Value of 5000 more in wrought Plate, beſides a Cargo of Hides, &c.

The Priſoners confirm the very odd Account of the little Prize with Oyl taken ſome Time ago by Capt Allen, and ſent homewards with 5 Men, viz. That one of them refuſing to go into New Providence, (from whence he had deſerted) there enſued a Quarrel in which Four kill'd one another, and the Maſter made ſhift to run into ſome Harbour near the Matanzas, and was taken by the Spaniards and carried to the Havanna.

New-York, May 28. We hear from Rocky Hill in New-Jerſey, that a Woman there was delivered a few Days ago of 3 Girls at a Birth, and who about 10 Months before had been delivered of three Boys, all which are now living and like to do well.

St Kitts, May 6. The two Privateer Sloops commanded by the Captains Wolford and Lisle, came in here three Days ago, but without any Succeſs. On the 17th of April laſt, they met with a French Ship, with whom they engaged warmly for 4 Glaſſes; but going to board her, the French, who thought they were already on their Quarter, blew her up; by which Means they loſt their Prize, and many of the Frenchmen their Lives; for out of 100 Perſons, they could ſave but 18 Men and 1 Woman.

Boſton in New England, June 4. Yeſterday a few Minutes paſt 10 in the Forenoon was felt here, a violent Shock of an Earthquake, attended with a Noiſe much like the Rattling of a Coach. It was ſo ſurprizing to the People at Meeting, that many of them left the Houſes and ran into the Streets. The Bricks were ſhook down from the Tops of many Chimneys in the Town, and many Pieces of Stone Fence in the Country. Some reckon the Shock near equal to that in the Year 1727, tho' it did continue so long. Last Night two small Shocks were felt in the neighbouring Towns.

New York, June 11. Wednesday last His Excellency our Governor embarked on board a Sloop for Albany, where he is to meet the Chiefs of the Five Nations of Indians, in order to renew and strengthen the Treaties of Peace and Friendship which have so long subsisted between this Government and those Nations; and the next Day arrived an Express from the Eastward, with the Expresses brought by His Majesty's Snow the Swallow into Boston: Those for this Government were immediately thereupon sent after his Excellency, which overtook him at Kingston, in the County of Ulster, where War was declared against France, at the Head of the Regiment of that County, last Saturday Afternoon.

The Earthquake mentioned to have been felt at Boston on Sunday the 3d Inst. was also felt by many Persons both in this City and on Long Island, at the same Time, but nothing so violent as 'twas said to be there.

Saturday last arrived here our two Privateers the Brigt. Hester, Capt. Bayard, and the Sloop Polly, Capt Jefferies, with the Prize so much talk'd of, from Cape-Fear; she is a beautiful Ship, almost new, of near 200 Tons, and laden chiefly with Cocoa: It is said they share about 1100 Wt. of Cocoa per Man.

Philadelphia, June 14. Late last Saturday Night an Express arrived here from the Northward, with the Dispatches brought by his Majesty's Snow the Swallow for this and the Southern Governments; and on Monday War against France was proclaimed here in Form. His Majesty's Declaration for the Encouragement of his Ships of War and Privateers was also read; and we hear that Eight Sail of Privateers will be fitted out of this Port in a short Time. The Ships Wilmington and Tartar, the Schooner George, and the Sloop Le Tremblear, are to sail in a few Days.

Newport, June 4. Sunday last came his Majesty's Orders to proclaim War against the French, which was done the next Day, with the usual Solemnity.

Three of our Privateers, viz. Captain Cranston, in the King George, Capt. Dennis, in the Prince Frederick, and Capt. William Allen, in the Prince William, are sail'd already since the Declaration of War, and Five more commanded by the Captains Jo Allen, Marshal, Bennetland, Thurston, and Jennison, are in great Forwardness to sail. It is expected that with these, and those already cruising, and such as are preparing with all Diligence, there will soon be near 20 Privateers at Sea belonging to this Port.

Boston, June 11. We have certain Advice, that a French Privateer from Cape Breton has taken 9 of our fishing Vessels upon the Banks, one of which they gave the Men to return home in. They say the Privateer had about 50 Men with small Arms, but no Cannon.

New York, June 18. Four Privateers are now fitting up with the utmost Expedition, viz. One Brigt. and Three Sloops, who will be ready to sail in a few Days; they are almost already mann'd, and 'tis impossible to express with what Alacrity the Volunteers enter on board.

Philadelphia, June 21. Tuesday arrived the Mercury, Capt. Hargrave, from London. On her Passage she met with a Glasgow Ship, bound to Virginia, which had taken a Ship homeward bound from the Havanna, and sent her to Glasgow; 30 French Men Prisoners, taken out of the Prize, were on board the Glasgow Ship.

Yesterday his Honour our Governour, with the Commissioners from Virginia, set out for Lancaster, to hold a Treaty there with the Indians of the five Nations, who are come down for that Purpose.

From Antigua they write, that a Privateer of St. Christophers brought in there last Month a Spanish Ship worth 70,000 l. Sterling.

And from Newfoundland we hear, that an English Man of War had sent in there a French Ship of 300 Tons, in order to be condemned.

Newport, June 15. This Morning arrived here the Snow Limpston, William Wood Master, which was taken by a French Ship (with a Letter of Marque) from St. Malo's, on the 20th of May last, on the Banks of Newfoundland. The same Ship had before taken the Ranger, Peter Reeve, from Philadelphia, for London, the 19th of April; the Samuel, William Warden, from South Carolina for London, April 28, and the Queen Elizabeth, Robert Howes, from Jamaica for Bristol, May 5, and gave this Snow to 27 of the Prisoners, who are come here in her.

The Prisoners report, that the Frenchman was but poorly manned, and ill provided, and the Frenchman said he came out with 12 Letter of Marque Men bound to Cape Breton.

Boston, June 14. By a Vessel which arrived here last Night from Annapolis-Royal, we have Advice, That they have got the Fort there in a good Posture of Defence, and that the English Inhabitants had taken down their Houses, and retir'd into it for Safety.

June 18. Yesterday Capt. Tyng, in our Province Snow Prince of Orange, sail'd on a Cruize, and Capt. Waterhouse in a fine large Brigt. compleatly fitted, carrying 14 large Carriage and 24 Swivel Guns, with 130 Men, now lies ready to sail. Two other stout Privateers will be ready to sail in a very short Time. There is also a Sloop fitting out by the Province, which will be ready to sail in a few Days, and is commanded by Capt Fletcher.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in New London, to one of his Friends in Boston.

'——— This Town has voted to send 'to our Governor, &c. to do something 'to fortify the Harbour, &c and in case 'they will not, they voted to petition the 'King, &c.' ———

New York, June 25. On Saturday last came in here, the brave Commodore Warren, in his Majesty's Ship the Launceston, with a French Ship of 300 Tons, called La St. Francois Xavier, Monsr Lachenaye Hamon Commander, bound from Languan to Nantz; taken in the Lat 27, 31. in his Way from Antigua to this Place: She has on board 500 Hogsheads of Sugar, 52 lb. weight of Bar Gold, and 3000 Dollars, besides some Indigo, &c. This is the 15th French Vessel taken by this Ship. She was saluted by all our Privateers, and several other Vessels, and the general Acclamations of the People, as a Testimony of the Sense they have of the signal Services done by this Gentleman during the Continuance of the War.

Besides the Four Privateers mentioned in our last, to be fitting out here, to cruise against the French and Spaniards, there are two more in great Forwardness for the Purpose; and its said another is preparing with all possible Dispatch: The 4 first are now compleatly fitted, and will sail in 2 or 3 Days at farthest.

It is with Pleasure we can inform our Readers, that his Excellency our Governor has met the five Nations of Indians, at Albany, and renewed the Covenant Chain with them, and the Indians were very well satisfied: It is said they have concluded a Treaty of Neutrality with the French Indians for the present War.

Philadelphia, June 28. The Wilmington Privateer, a Ship of 24 Carriage Guns, with 180 stout Fellows; and the Schooner George, with 140, are sail'd on a Cruize against his Majesty's Enemies. The Tartar, a 20 Gun Ship, well mann'd; and the Sloop Le Tremblear, are fallen down, and will sail in a Day or two, upon the same Account.

Newport, June 22. On Tuesday last sail'd Capt James Allen in the Revenge, of 12 large Carriage Guns, and as many Swivels, with 120 chosen Men. It was remarked, that the People were so forward of sailing in so fine a Sloop, second to none but our Colony Sloop Tartar, and under so good a Commander, that he was forc'd to send ashore above 60 brave Fellows, who must wait a few Days longer for some of the other Privateers.

Our Colony Sloop is ordered by the General Assembly to cruize in Concert with the Connecticut Sloop 'till the Fall, for the more effectual Protection of the Coasting Trade.

Boston, June 25. By a Person who was Master of a Vessel lately taken by the French at Canso, we are inform'd, That 'twas on the 14th of May last, just about break of Day, when the French came against that Place. Their Force consisted of a Sloop and Schooner, each having 8 Carriage & 8 Swivel Guns, attended with 30 smaller Vessels with Land Forces, the whole Number of Men were supposed to be 8 or 900, under the Command of Capt. Doherty. After they had discharg'd a few Broadsides upon the Place, they sent off a Flag of Truce, and after some Capitulation surrender'd and were made Prisoners of War: The Guard-Sloop stood upon her Defence for some Time; but was obliged to strike to such a superior Force, after having one Man kill'd and 3 or 4 wounded: The Indians were very desirous of going ashore to destroy all the English People, and would have done it, but were prevented by the French Commander. After the French had got Possession of the Block-House, they went to Mass, singing Te Deum, &c. and having set Fire to the Stores and other Buildings, they departed and sail'd with their Prisoners, 70 or 80 in Number, as also the English Vessels by them taken, to Cape Breton, where all but the Guard Sloop arriv'd the next Day: The English that were left on board the said Sloop having watch'd their Opportunity, when at some Distance, overpow-ed the Frenchmen and secur'd them in the Hold for 3 Days; but very unlucky it was, that not one of them understood how to navigate the Vessel, and being at a loss which way to steer, they released the Frenchmen, who soon carried them to Cape Breton, and immediately made them close Prisoners.

By a Gentleman lately arrived from Cape Breton, we are informed, That the French have six Privateers at Sea from that Place, the principal of which is a large Schooner, with 140 Men, well fitted, (but a dull Sailor) and commanded by one Murphy, an Irishman, called by the French Morpang, an old and noted Commander, famous for his Exploits on this Coast in the last War. 'Tis said this boasting Blade threatens to come and take Vessels out of Nantasket Road, and has the Impudence to say, that he expects in a little Time to have the Command of our Province Snow the Prince of Orange. When the Gentleman came away, the Privateers had carried into Louisburgh no less than 23 English Vessels, viz. 13 fishing Schooners, and 10 trading Ships. But what is most surprizing, 'tis said, that upwards of 40 of the late Garrison at Canso, have entered on board of Morpang, to cruize against their Fellow Subjects.

The Commander at Annapolis Royal daily expecting a Visit from the French, has again sent to this Government requesting Succours.

Four of our Privateers, viz. two Brigs, a Sillander, and a Schooner, are sail'd on a Cruize, another Brigt will sail in a few Days, and a Ship is building for the same Diversion; besides these this Government has a Snow, a Brigt and a Sloop in Commission, one of which is on a Cruize, another sails this Day, and the third is fitting out with the utmost Expedition.

They are daily bearing up in this Town (with Success) for Volunteers to strengthen his Majesty's Garrison at Annapolis Royal.

New York, June 27. Yesterday his Excellency our Governor return'd here safe from Albany, and this Day War against the French King was proclaim'd with the usual Solemnity.

New York, July 2. Two of our Privateers, the Brigt. Hester, Capt. Bayard, with 130 Men, and the Sloop Polly, Capt. Jeffries, with 95 Men, sail'd Yesterday out of the Hook, on a Cruize; the Sloop Clinton, Capt. Seymour, and the Mary Ann, Capt. Tucker, are both fell down, and design to sail this Day.

Boston, July 2. Last Monday in the Afternoon, Capt. Tyng, in our Snow Prince of Orange, arrived here from a short Cruize, and brought in with him a French Privateer Sloop of 8 Carriage and 12 Swivel Guns, with 94 Men, Capt. De La Brotz, Commander, which he happily met with about 15 Leagues from Cape Cod, about 9 o'Clock on Saturday Morning, as he was coming in from Sea. The Frenchmen taking him for an inward bound West India Man, stood directly after him, and coming pretty near, gave him a Gun, which he returned with a Broad Side; upon this the Frenchmen fired two Guns, then took to their Oars, and endeavoured to get away. This oblig'd Capt. Tyng to put out his Oars also, and after a hard Chase of 12 or 13 Hours, (during which time Capt. Tyng treated his Men well with Liquor, and encourag'd them all he could) he came up with the Sloop, and having given her a Broadside and a Volley of small Arms, they cry'd for Quarters, but in the Panick forgot to strike their Colours, and kept them flying 'till some of our brave English Lads went on board, and exchanged them for the King's Colours. Captain Tyng's shot happen'd to be so well placed, that the Sloop's Sails and Rigging were tore all to Pieces; and when the French Captain came on board, he gave Tyng a great Character of his Gunner, saying; he was the best that ever he knew, for that every shot he fired during the Chace, took Place, and did him some Damage in his Sails and Rigging. One shot struck the Mast just below the Hounds, which so disabled it, that soon after they surrendered it broke off, and left the Sloop without an Inch of Sail or Rigging standing; so that Capt. Tyng was obliged to take her in Tow, or he could never have got her in.

The Prisoners were all landed in the Evening and conducted to Prison under a strong Guard, and in the Morning about 50 of them were removed to the Goals in Cambridge and Charlestown. The Fellows are all as merry as they are ragged, and seem well pleased with their Circumstances, declaring, that they live better here than they did at home, except five of the late Garrison at Canso, who entered voluntarily on board the Privateer, and are now sensible they have been in a wrong Box.

Philadelphia, July 5. Sunday last the Tartar, Capt. Mackay, sail'd down the Bay in order to proceed on his Cruize, but being (as 'tis said) over masted, and not well ballasted, she was unfortunately overset, by a slight Flaw of Wind, near the Capes, and sunk immediately in about 8 Fathom Water. There were near 200 People on board, among them several Gentlemen from this City. The Captain with about 60 Officers and Seamen were saved in her Boats, and went ashore the Cape; 14 were taken up by Capt. Plasket in a Pilot Boat; and Capt. Clost, who was coming in from Barbados, ran his Vessel near the Ship, and took 47. The rest perished. 'Tis expected she will soon be weigh'd, and with some Alterations, fitted out again, as she is a most extraordinary Sailer; so that we hope our Enemies will hardly hear of the Misfortune, before they find they have no great Reason to rejoice at it.

CHARLES TOWN, Aug. 27.

This Day his Majesty's Snow Swallow sail'd on a Cruize.

A Second Letters to the Managers of the Orphan-House in Georgia, in the Abſence of Mr. Whitefield.

Gentlemen,

I AM a hearty Friend to the Publick; to all honeſt Methods of publick Charity in general, for relieving the Wants, whether Bodily or Spiritual, of my Fellow Creatures; and to the Orphan-House in Georgia (if an honeſt one it be) in particular. In this Diſpoſition of Heart, I preſumed to write a Letter to you the Truſtees or Managers of the ſaid Houſe in Mr. Whitefield's Abſence, above a Year ago; acquainting you with the following Particulars, of the laſt Importance both to the ſaid Houſe and Yourſelves: viz. The Publick's reaſonable Expectation and Demand of your Accompts, your full, faithful, ſufficiently vouched, ſworn to, authentickly audited, and atteſted Accompts of the ſaid Houſe (purſuant to the Queries and Scheme inſerted) from the Beginning down to that Date. — The various Scandals and Reproaches caſt on it, or rather on you, and your Principal, the Truſtees and Managers of it, wholly owing to your rendering no ſuch Accompts, or rather to your induſtriouſly ſuppreſſing them; — And the great Danger, if not moral Certainty, that the Continuance of this ſuſpicious Conduct, will ſoon put a Stop to all charitable Contributions, and bring the Houſe to a ſpeedy and diſhonourable End.

This Letter I wrote, and this Letter you receiv'd, 'bove a Year ago. Your full and ſatisfactory Anſwer has been much boaſted by ſome, as much doubted by others, and waited for with Impatience by all: But all this while no Anſwer of any ſort has yet appeared. In much Love therefore to you, and Zeal for the Good of the Houſe, I muſt take Leave to give you this ſecond Trouble, to acquaint you, what Matter of Grief and Confuſion your Silence is to your Friends! and what Matter of Triumph to your Enemies! You muſt eaſily conceive with what Anxiety of Heart, and Confuſion of Face, your Friends muſt hear the many Revilings uttered againſt you, and without being able to reply one Word in your Behalf! The Gainſayers are waxen worſe and worſe. They are now ſure, they ſay, that you are a Knot of K--ves, combined to chowſe the poor unthinking Populace out of all you can, and by the moſt odious and deteſtable of all Means, viz. high Pretences to Religion, ſpecially that more eſſential Part of it, Charity: — That your famous Founder, finding himſelf Maſter of the mendicant Talent, on preaching ſome Charity Sermons with uncommon Succeſs in London, ſpeedily and plainly perceived, what Hand he might make of it, for mending his broken Fortunes, had he but a plauſible Pretence: — That moſt opportunely to furniſh him with this, Georgia was then of high Eclat! That bleſſed Colony! projected on pure Principles of Charity; for relieving the Diſtreſſed of Mankind, feeding the hungry, cloathing the naked, and letting the Priſoners go free; and in a Word, where they were promiſed an End to all their Wants and Diſtreſſes, and which many of them accordingly indeed found; but, alas! by finding their Graves: — That the poor Wretches thus unhappily deceived, and the tender Mercies of Georgia turning out to them the ſevereſt Cruelties, died in Numbers, leaving their helpleſs Babes quite deſtitute, and in a Wilderneſs; ſo that out of the Ruins of this firſt charitable Project, ſprang up plauſible for a ſecond, viz. That of an ORPHAN-HOUSE: A matchleſs Event for anſwering every Purpoſe of the Man's Heart! Furniſhing a ſpecious Pretence not only for the Exerciſe of his Talents for begging and collecting of Charity; but alſo, for managing or diſpenſing the ſame when collected, in the darkeſt Corner of all the Britiſh Dominions! — That this Project no ſooner concerted and authorized, but forth he went (joined by both the Weſleys, but who ſoon dropp'd him) full of Impulſes and Inſpirations, (and what will not the Love of Money inſpire!) with all the fanatick Artillery (Doctrines) of the Oliverian times, open mouthed and handed to preach, beg, and receive for the poor Orphans of Georgia! A ſtanch Churchman in Old England! A thorough Independant in New-England! An Anabaptiſt 'mong Anabaptiſts! A true-blue
